DEAR COLLEAGUES, FAMILIES AND VENDORS

What would be a better place to commence the 50th celebration of ASOPRS than Paradise Island? Marlene and I are thrilled to be hosting you at the Atlantis. Like most of you, we always enjoy and look forward to the Spring Meetings. It provides our members and their families the opportunity to renew lifelong friendships, create new ones, and to meet the new members, as well as learn all the latest advances from our esteemed colleagues.

Our excellent Spring Program Chair, Cathy Hwang, has organized an exceptional program with a prodigious lineup of educational sessions including: YASOPRS Rapid Fire Cases, the Leadership Development Workshop and an ASOPRS 50th Anniversary Reflections session. Scientific Sessions on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday morning will cover the breadth of Aesthetic and Functional Oculofacial Surgery.

Our meeting will commence Thursday afternoon featuring Ms. Marsheila DeVan who will present the Leadership Workshop: Communicating with Confidence & Working with Different Personalities. The President's Welcome Reception will be held 6 to 8 pm on "The Dig Deck" with local entertainment.

Our Featured Speaker, Dr. Renée Ostertag, DPT, MPT, Cert. MDT, M.Physio, CCTP, who is our ASOPRS Foundation Ralph E. Wesley Lecturer, will share with us her advice on how to Be Good to Your Back: Posturing for Health.

The Annual ASOPRS Golf Tournament will be held Friday afternoon at The Ocean Club, a challenging, masterfully-conceived and stunning course on the Atlantis, Paradise Island Oceanside's peninsula. On Saturday afternoon, enjoy an ASOPRS Tennis Tournament or interact with dolphins at the Atlantis' Dolphin Cay. If you have not signed up for these activities and desire to, please check with registration.

In addition, the Atlantis has almost any water activity you could ever desire, including scuba, snuba, and snorkeling. Visit the Atlantis' Marine Adventures webpage for more information.

Our Annual Banquet on Saturday will be held at "The Royal Deck," where we have the pleasure of welcoming and inducting our newest members, and great entertainment is planned.

Of course, all of this would not be possible if it was not for the great skills and efforts of our Executive Staff, Tisha Kehn and Amanda Macrina and all the time they have put into this over the past two years. We are also greatly indebted to our industry sponsors, who provide the financial support that allows us to provide such a high-caliber meeting and achieve our educational goals.

Thank you for helping us commence our 50th year celebration of ASOPRS. I am greatly honored and delighted to host this inspirational learning and collegial experience.

Dan and Marlene Schaefer

General Information

Symposium Objectives

- To provide a forum for presentation of new concepts, new data, and new techniques in cosmetic and reconstructive oculofacial plastic surgery to enhance knowledge, competence, and outcomes.
- To promote excellence in patient care and outcomes in all areas of cosmetic and reconstructive eyelid, lacrimal, and orbital disease and surgery.
- To present opportunities for exchange of knowledge with specialty experts and our colleagues.
- To highlight areas of oculofacial plastic and reconstructive surgery where research activity has produced improved outcomes and highlight areas where additional research is needed.
- To provide the results of scientific studies concerning new surgical techniques, devices or equipment in cosmetic and reconstructive oculofacial plastic surgery.

Continuing Medical Education

Continuing Medical Education information and Financial Disclosures can be found in the 2019 Spring Scientific Symposium Syllabus.

Education Disclaimer

Registrants for this symposium understand that medical and scientific knowledge is constantly evolving and that the views and techniques of the instructors are their own and may reflect innovations and opinions not universally shared. The views and techniques of the instructors are not necessarily those of ASOPRS but are presented in this forum to advance scientific and medical education. ASOPRS disclaims any and all liability arising out of the information presented in this course. Registrants also understand that operating rooms and health care facilities present inherent dangers and as such they shall confirm to all proper medical practices and procedures for the treatment of patients for whom no medical history is available.

Industry Disclaimer

Industry promotional opportunities, including but not limited to tradeshow, breakfasts and lunches, are provided for informational purposes. ASOPRS does not undertake to verify the claims of, or assess the products or services offered by, any company presenting during ASOPRS' meetings, nor does ASOPRS' receipt of a fee from, and provision of space to, such companies constitute an endorsement or recommendation by ASOPRS. Attendees must make their own independent judgments as to the advisability of entering into any business transaction.

Photography and Social Media Policy

ASOPRS' policy for the use of photography and social media at the Scientific Symposium is intended to strike a balance between the needs of scientists, physicians and other health care professionals, patients and advocates for the latest oculoplastics information and the needs of presenters to protect their proprietary content from unauthorized use.

- Non-flash photography is allowed for personal, social, or noncommercial use.
- Respect presenters who state they do not want their slides and/or content shared on social media.
- Attendees taking photos must do so in a nondisruptive manner so as not to disturb the presenter and other attendees.
- Slides with patient faces or other identifiable information cannot be shared on social media due to HIPAA regulations. Video recording, live audio and/or video streaming is strictly prohibited.

Failure to comply with this policy may result in being removed from the session and/or meeting.

Cancellations

ASOPRS issued refunds, less a $50 administrative fee, upon receipt of written notice on or before April 24, 2019. No refunds will be made after this date. Refunds will not be made for no-shows.

Notice of Photography

By attending the ASOPRS 2019 Spring Scientific Symposium, you are entering an area where photographs will be taken and by entering the area, you consent to publication, exhibition, or reproduction of your image for promotional purposes, advertising, inclusion on websites, social media, or any other purpose by ASOPRS and its representatives. You release ASOPRS, its employees, and each and all persons involved from any liability connected with the taking of photographs and you waive all rights to any claims for payment or royalties in connection with any use of the photographs. You also waive any right to inspect or approve any photograph taken by ASOPRS or the person or entity designated to do so by ASOPRS. If you do not want your image used as stated above, please email info@asoprs.org.

Meeting Evaluation/CME Certificate

A link to an evaluation will be provided to attendees via email. You will have an opportunity to print a CME certificate once you have completed the evaluation. Your feedback is carefully considered when planning future meetings. Thank you in advance for helping ASOPRS improve our Scientific Symposium.

Featured Speakers

Marsheila DeVan

Thursday, May 30, 3 - 5 pm

Leadership Development Workshop:

Communicating with Confidence & Working with Different Personalities

Marsheila DeVan is a Communication Specialist with over twenty five years of training experience. Her expertise includes work within university systems as well as the pharmaceutical and medical industries, concentrating on physician speaker development, interpersonal skills improvement, meeting moderation, leadership, cultural diversity, sales training, curriculum development and one-to-one coaching.

Marsheila holds a Bachelors Degree in Political Science from the University of California, Los Angeles and a Masters of Business Administration from the University of California, Irvine with a concentration in Organizational Behavior and Strategic Planning.

She spent seven years following her passion for the development of public/private partnerships between multiple communities and businesses to enhance community empowerment programs. Her outstanding communication skills and ability to work with diverse audiences earned her multiple national awards.

Her international experience includes teaching to multiple nationalities and medical specialties in locations such as Thailand, Switzerland, Hungary, Spain, Austria, Bermuda, Australia, France, Germany, Czech Republic, Italy, Portugal, Turkey, Mexico, Canada, Korea, Hong Kong, Iraq, Iran, Pakistan, Vietnam, Philippines, Ireland, the Caribbean, and most recently Mongolia. Her extensive travels have given her an understanding of different beliefs, attitudes, and values of various cultures and people.

Marsheila's demeanor, humor and approach to training create an open and comfortable learning environment that results in a high level of interaction and learning.

Renée Ostertag, DPT, MPT, Cert. MDT, M.Physio, CCTP

Friday, May 31, 9:15 - 9:45 am

ASOPRS Foundation Ralph E. Wesley Lecture: Be Good to Your Back: Posturing for Health

Saturday, June 1, 9:25 - 9:45 am

Pain Hacks: The Ultimate Warm-Up in Just 10 Minutes a Day

Dr. Ostertag has had the privilege of speaking to ophthalmologists since 2011 at ASOPRS, AAO, Women in Ophthalmology, and Eye Care for Animals. She provides ergonomic advice, corrective exercises and strategies to minimize musculoskeletal loading and reduce pain during the inevitable demands of the ophthalmologists' strenuous day. Renée loves helping *YOU* do what you do best.

Dr. Ostertag has been a practicing clinician of Physical Therapy for patients with neuromusculoskeletal pain since 2003; her clinical experience includes acute care, sub-acute care, rehab, sports medicine, chronic pain, occupational medicine, and Spine Rehab.

Renée obtained her Masters Degree and clinical Doctorate in Physical Therapy in 2003. As a student of life-long learning and empowerment through education, she obtained a second Masters degree in Musculoskeletal Physiotherapy from the University of South Australia in 2008. In addition, she has a credential in Mechanical Diagnosis and Treatment, a certification in Orthopedic Manual Therapy, is certified in Trigger Point Dry Needling and is a Certified Clinical Trauma Professional.

Dr. Ostertag started Green Tree Mind, LLC in 2012, sees patients in Denver, Colorado and works virtually with clients around the country. She teaches classes, workshops and delivers keynotes on Somatic Mindfulness, using the Polyvagal theory to train and calm the nervous system. In addition, she does consultant teaching for the University of Colorado Physical Therapy Program's Musculoskeletal Course series.

Thursday, May 30, 2019

9 am	Executive Committee Meeting	Conference Center – Apollo
2 – 5 pm	Registration	Conference Center – Grand Ballroom Foyer
3 – 5 pm	Leadership Development Workshop [2 CME Hours] Communicating with Confidence &amp; Working with Different Personalities FEATURED SPEAKER: Marsheila DeVan	Conference Center – Grand Ballroom

This communication skills workshop will offer practical techniques to successfully communicate with confidence. Learn to identify positive non-verbal and verbal behaviors to optimize a speaker's influence and hold attention. We will discuss common barriers to communication that may stop you from conveying or receiving the right message. Participants will identify areas of strength and opportunities for improvement.

The workshop will examine effective techniques for solid delivery skills, engaging an audience, presenting with visuals, articulating complex data, and keeping a group on task, time, and topic. The workshop will strengthen your communication competencies using facilitated discussions, coaching, and behavioral modeling of successful presenters.

At the end of the workshop, the participants will have mastered how to communicate with confidence, articulate key points, and think on their feet during a Q&A session.

Objectives:

- Learn to adapt your leadership style to different personalities
- Discuss the principle of creating influence
- Build critical communication skills to increase confidence and credibility
- Fine-tune their communication skills by using solid delivery skills
- Practice thinking on their feet and articulating "key messages" succinctly
- Create a conversational approach to the delivery of data
- Work effectively with PowerPoint slides and notes
- Consistently convey strong, compelling take-away messages
- Handle Q&A sessions with confidence and poise

ASOPRS Awards

ASOPRS Outstanding Contribution Award

This award is given to an individual or individuals who make a legendary single, or longstanding multiple contributions to ASOPRS.

The recipient of this year's ASOPRS Outstanding Contribution Award is: Richard C. Allen, for his library of surgical videos.

Richard C. Allen

Richard C. Allen is a Professor in the Dept. of Ophthalmology at Baylor College of Medicine and the University of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center. Dr. Allen attended Duke University where he received a BS in Chemistry followed by Baylor College of Medicine where he received his MD and PhD degrees. He completed a residency in ophthalmology and a fellowship in oculoplastic surgery at the University of Iowa. Dr. Allen is a member of ASOPRS, the Orbital Society, the North American Skull Base Society, ESOPRS, and the American Eye Study Club. He has published numerous peer-reviewed papers, book chapters, and textbooks. He is a reviewer for multiple medical journals and is a member on committees in ASOPRS and the American Academy of Ophthalmology. He resides in Houston, TX with his wife Missy, son Augustus, and daughter Astrid.

Orkan G. Stasior Leadership Award

This award is given to an individual who has demonstrated distinguished service in the field of ophthalmic plastic and reconstructive surgery through education, research, humanitarian activities and/or service to the Society. This award is presented in recognition of the leadership of ASOPRS charter member, Orkan G. Stasior.

The recipient of this year's Orkan G. Stasior Leadership Award is: Mark L. Mazow, for his tireless advocacy work.

Mark L. Mazow

Mark Mazow is in private practice in Dallas, Texas. He is Clinical Professor of Ophthalmology at University of Texas Southwestern Medical School. He is Chief of Ophthalmology at Medical City Dallas Hospital and Medical City Children's Hospital. He attends at Texas Health Presbyterian Hospital of Dallas and Baylor Medical Center in Plano. He is President Elect of the Texas Ophthalmological Association and Co-Chair of the ASOPRS Intersociety and Government Affairs Committee. He has lectured and published on a variety of topics in Oculoplastics. He credits his interest and success in Ophthalmology and Oculoplastics to his father, Malcolm Mazow.

The Roger A. Dailey YASOPRS Rising Star Award Presented on behalf of the ASOPRS Foundation

Named in honor of a generous donor to the ASOPRS Foundation, the Foundation will award the Roger A. Dailey YASOPRS Rising Star Award to a presenter from the YASOPRS: Rapid Fire Cases Sessions. The recipient of the award will be announced during the Awards Session on Saturday, June 1, 2019.

A Young ASOPRS (YASOPRS) is an official ASOPRS member who has 8 years or less experience after graduation from an ASOPRS accredited fellowship, or alternatively, satisfies the Category II membership requirements and has 8 years or less experience after fellowship graduation. Fellows-in-Training in an ASOPRS-accredited fellowship are also invited to participate in the Rapid Fire Cases and Presentations.

ASOPRS Awards

Richard K. Dortzbach Teaching Award

The Dortzbach Teaching Award is given to an individual with significant contribution to the field of oculoplastics through outstanding teaching, academic, scientific, and scholarly achievement and for dedication throughout his or her profession. The recipient of this year's Richard K. Dortzbach Teaching Award is: Allen M. Putterman.

Allen M.
Putterman

Dr. Allen Putterman began practicing Oculofacial Plastic Surgery 49 years ago following a fellowship with Dr. Byron Smith in New York. He limited his practice to Oculofacial Plastic Surgery in 1972 and may have been the first, or one of the first, to do this. He maintains a private practice in Chicago and is also Professor of Ophthalmology and Co-Chief of Oculofacial Plastic Surgery at the University of Illinois College of Medicine. He has also served as president of the American Society of Ophthalmic Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery and the Chicago Ophthalmological Society. He has trained 33 Oculofacial Plastic Surgery fellows.

Dr. Putterman has published over 280 scientific papers and 110 book chapters, many on oculoplastic surgery procedures and instruments that he invented. He has also published 4 editions of his textbook, Cosmetic Oculoplastic Surgery. Dr. Putterman has also given over 380 lectures in the Oculoplastic Surgery field, both nationally and internationally.

During his career, Dr. Putterman has garnered several prestigious awards, including recognition in each publication of The Best Doctors Book (Woodard/White) and all the editions of (Castle Connolly's) Top Doctors book. He has also been listed as one of the top doctors in Chicago in multiple yearly editions of Chicago Magazine.

Dr. Putterman is also a black belt instructor of NIA, which combines the martial, dance, and healing arts. He is a certified Zumba, Zumba Gold, and 5 stages instructor, as well. He co-teaches exercise classes with his wife, Lynett.

James A. Katowitz Pediatric Award

This award is given to an individual for longstanding contributions in pediatric oculofacial plastic surgery. The recipient of this year's James A. Katowitz Pediatric Award is: Christine C. Nelson.

Christine C.
Nelson

Christine Nelson is a Professor of Ophthalmology and Visual Sciences, Professor of Surgery, Section Chief, Eye Plastic, Orbital and Facial Cosmetic surgery at the Kellogg Eye Center University of Michigan. She serves as the ASOPRS fellowship director and has trained 22 fellows. In 2012, she was the recipient of the prestigious Wendell L. Hughes lecture award at the American Academy of Ophthalmology. She enjoys working with children, many of whom face challenging injuries from accidents or birth defects, as well as tumors. She was installed as the first Bartley R. Frueh and Frueh Family Professorship in Eye Plastics and Orbital Surgery, which specifically supports her research in congenital anophthalmia. Her research identified a mutation on gene, RPB4, that can cause anophthalmia of one or both eyes to develop. She is one of the co-directors of the International Kellogg Eye Center and is leading the project which established an ophthalmology residency program at St. Paul's Millennium Medical School in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. She is now developing a retinoblastoma screening program in Ethiopia. She is grateful to her mentors Drs. Crowell Beard and Bartley Frueh.
