FEATURED SPEAKERS

ASOPRS Foundation Ralph E. Wesley Lecturer: Neil R. Miller, MD, FACS

Saturday, May 18

8:54–9:09 am But Everything Went Great!

10:06–10:12 am Carotid-Cavernous Fistula Cannulization Technique Video & Tips

11:26–11:41 am The Molecular Genetics of Optic Pathway Gliomas: Impact on Treatment

Dr. Neil Miller is Professor Emeritus of Neuro-Ophthalmology and Professor of Ophthalmology, Neurology, and Neurosurgery at the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine. He has authored over 590 articles, 97 chapters, and 15 books, including the 4th edition of “Walsh and Hoyt’s Clinical Neuro-Ophthalmology” and has co-edited the 5th and 6th editions of this textbook as well as four editions of an abbreviated version of the textbook: “Walsh and Hoyt’s Clinical Neuro-Ophthalmology: The Essentials”, the most recent of which was published in 2020. Dr. Miller also has co-authored two editions of “The Neuro-Ophthalmology Survival Guide,” a textbook designed for both physicians and students. The third edition is due out this year. Dr. Miller has spoken at numerous local, national, and international meetings and has given 65 named lectures around the world. In addition, he has been involved with many clinical trials in the field of neuro-ophthalmology. Many of Dr. Miller’s previous Fellows and residents hold faculty positions at major institutions throughout the United States and around the world.

Lisa Akintilo, MD, MPH

Friday, May 17

11:01–11:21 am Pan-Facial Rejuvenation with Lasers and Energy-Based Devices

Dr. Lisa Akintilo is a board-certified dermatologist and fellowship-trained cosmetic and laser surgeon who completed her residency training at New York University. She also completed an American Society of Dermatologic Surgery-Cosmetic Dermatologic Surgery fellowship in Miami, Florida and is now an Assistant Professor of Dermatology at NYU with a special focus on lasers and other energy-based devices. She is passionate about medical education, mentorship, global health, and innovation.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Symposium Objectives

- To provide a forum for presentation of new concepts, ideas, techniques, and research in functional and aesthetic reconstructive oculofacial plastic surgery
- To discuss current practice management techniques and coding methods, access to care, safety, and professionalism in oculoplastic surgery
- To illustrate new advancements in medical and surgical management of orbital and eyelid tumors and inflammations
- To provide an update on the advancing field of oculoplastic surgery
- To allow ample time for discussion with experts of oculofacial and reconstructive surgery in a collegial atmosphere

Meeting Evaluation/CME Certificate

A link to an evaluation will be provided to attendees after the meeting via email. You will have an opportunity to download a CME certificate once you have completed the evaluation. Your feedback is carefully considered when planning future meetings. Thank you for helping ASOPRS improve our Spring Scientific Symposium.

Education Disclaimer

Registrants for this symposium understand that medical and scientific knowledge is constantly evolving and that the views and techniques of the instructors are their own and may reflect innovations and opinions not universally shared. The views and techniques of the instructors are not necessarily those of ASOPRS but are presented in this forum to advance scientific and medical education. ASOPRS disclaims any and all liability arising out the information presented in this meeting. Registrants also understand that operating rooms and health care facilities present inherent dangers and as such they shall confirm to all proper medical practices and procedures for the treatment of patients for whom no medical history is available.

Industry Disclaimer

Industry promotional opportunities, including but not limited to tradeshow and product theaters, are provided for informational purposes. ASOPRS does not undertake to verify the claims of, or assess the products or services offered by, any company presenting during ASOPRS' meetings, nor does ASOPRS' receipt of a fee from, and provision of space to, such companies constitute an endorsement or recommendation by ASOPRS. Attendees must make their own independent judgments as to the advisability of entering into a business transaction.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Photography and Social Media Policy

ASOPRS' policy for the use of photography and social media at the Scientific Symposium is intended to strike a balance between the needs of scientists, physicians and other health care professionals, patients and advocates for the latest oculofacial plastic surgery information and the needs of presenters to protect their proprietary content from unauthorized use.

- Non-flash photography is allowed for personal, social, or noncommercial use.
- Respect presenters who state they do not want their slides and/or content shared on social media.
- Attendees taking photos must do so in a non-disruptive manner so as not to disturb the presenter and other attendees.
- Slides with patient faces or other identifiable information cannot be shared on social media due to HIPAA regulations.
- Video recording, live audio and/or video streaming is strictly prohibited.
- Failure to comply with this policy may result in being removed from the session and/or meeting.

AWARDS

ASOPRS Outstanding Contribution Award

This award is given to an individual or individuals who make a legendary single, or longstanding multiple contributions to ASOPRS.
The recipients of this year's ASOPRS Outstanding Contribution Award are Cat N. Burkat and Stuart R. Seiff for their work on the Wartime Trauma Webinars.

Cat N. Burkat

Cat Burkat, MD FACS is a Professor in Ophthalmology and Co-Director of the University of Wisconsin-Madison Global Ophthalmology. She completed a dual ASOPRS and cosmetic facial fellowship directed by Dr. Lemke, and has written over 90 book chapters, is Editor for four oculofacial surgery textbooks, and directed over 80 skills courses/breakfast roundtables at annual AAO meetings. She served as Assistant & Program Chair for the 2020, 2021, and 2022 ASOPRS Annual Scientific Fall and Spring Symposia, and the AAO Oculofacial Subspecialty Day Program Chair. She is currently the ASOPRS Fellowship Education Director and a member of the AUPO Fellowship Compliance Committee.

She serves as Editor-in-Chief and former Oculoplastics Lead Editor of the AAO EyeWiki educational website and has received the AAO Senior Achievement Award and Secretariat Award. She is the World Ophthalmology Congress Liaison Chair representing ASOPRS in the International Council of Ophthalmology. She is Secretary and Podcast Chair for the Women Professors in Ophthalmology, and on organizing and mentoring committees in Women in Ophthalmology (WIO), AAO Minority Mentoring Program, and a Committee Chair for the ABO. She is also the Founding Director of two nonprofit organizations to support oculoplastics and ophthalmology surgical trips globally. She has served on the Scientific Program Committee for the inaugural World Society of Ophthalmic Plastic Reconstructive & Aesthetic Surgery (WSOPRAS) meeting in Dubai and Istanbul, and on the Program Committee for the 2023 and 2024 AAO Global Ophthalmology Summit. She received the 2022 University of Wisconsin Women of Color Award and the 2022 ASOPRS Service Award, the ASOPRS 2022 Outstanding Contribution Award, and ASOPRS 2022 Orkan G. Stasior Leadership Award for distinguished service in oculoplastic surgery, and recently inducted into the Alpha Omega Alpha National Medical Honor Society.

Special thanks to her family, ASOPRS, and Drs. Mazzoli and Seiff.

Stuart R. Seiff

AWARDS

Orkan G. Stasior Leadership Award

This award is given to an individual who has demonstrated distinguished service in the field of ophthalmic plastic and reconstructive surgery through education, research, humanitarian activities and/or service to the Society. This award is presented in recognition of the leadership of ASOPRS charter member, Orkan G. Stasior, MD.

The recipient of this year's Orkan G. Stasior Leadership Award is Edward J. Wladis.

Edward J. Wladis

Edward "Ted" Wladis MD is professor and chair of the Lions Eye Institute, Department of Ophthalmology at Albany Medical College. He directs his department's ASOPRS-approved fellowship, serves as chair of the American Academy of Ophthalmology's (AAO's) ophthalmology technology assessment committee, and served as editor of ASOPRS' online knowledge center. Dr. Wladis was previously honored to receive the Research Award, Marvin Quickert Thesis Award, Bartley Frueh Award twice, and Merrill Rhee Pathophysiology Award from ASOPRS; the Achievement, Senior Achievement, and Secretariat Awards from the AAO; induction into the American Ophthalmological Society; and completion of the AAO's Leadership Development Program. He is engaged in clinical and basic science research. Dr. Wladis would like to thank his fellowship mentors, Drs. Roberta Gausas and Kenneth Morgenstern, for their exceptional contributions to his education and career development, and his partners in his practice, Drs. Dale Meyer and Michael Rothschild, for their guidance and friendship.

Richard K. Dortzbach Teaching Award

The Dortzbach Teaching Award is given to an individual with significant contribution to the field of oculoplastics through outstanding teaching, academic, scientific, and scholarly achievement and for dedication throughout his or her profession.

The recipient of this year's Richard K. Dortzbach Teaching Award is Don O. Kikkawa.

Don O. Kikkawa

Don O. Kikkawa is the Trude Kahn Hollander Endowed Chair in Ophthalmology and Distinguished Professor at UC San Diego in La Jolla, California. He is also Vice Chair, Division Chief of Oculofacial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery and Distinguished Professor of Plastic Surgery at UC San Diego. He is a former President of the ASOPRS, former Director for the American Board of Ophthalmology, former Trustee of the ASOPRS Foundation, and current member of the Ophthalmology RRC for the ACGME. He currently serves on the Editorial Boards of Ophthalmology, Ophthalmic Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery, and is an Associate Editor of Translational Vision Science and Technology.

He counts among his blessings his family and the many fellows and visiting scholars that he has mentored in his career. Having trained under Dr. Dortzbach, this award is particularly meaningful.

AWARDS

James A. Katowitz Pediatric Award

This award shall be given to an individual for longstanding contributions in pediatric oculo-facial plastic surgery.

The recipient of this year's James A. Katowitz Pediatric Award is Ramon Medel.

Ramon Medel

Dr. Ramon Medel received his ophthalmology degree from Universidad Autonoma de Barcelona (UAB), Spain, in 1995 and completed a fellowship in Ophthalmic Plastic Surgery at Moorfields eye Hospital in London, UK in 1996. Right after he was appointed consultant of the Ophthalmic Plastic and Orbital surgery department at Hospital Vall D'hebron and Instituto de Microcirugia Ocular (IMO) in Barcelona where he started both services and began a direct academic link with the Universidad Autonoma de Barcelona (UAB) in the ophthalmology residency and oculoplastic fellowship program over last 28 years.

He was president of the Spanish oculoplastic society (SECPOO) from 2007 to 2011, establishing vital changes to improve the academic level and recognition to the subspecialty in Spain. He's director of the ESASO Orbital, Lacrimal & Ophthalmic Plastic Surgery module at Lugano University. Currently he is the director of Medel Eye Hub, based in Malaga and Barcelona, where he keeps teaching to fellows and observers while taking care of patients from all over the world. He has published several articles and book chapters in the ocular oncology and ophthalmic plastic diseases field, and he is an invited lectured all over the world for subjects such as ptosis, orbital tumours, lachrymal and eyelid surgery, among many other subjects.
